

Office of Grants Management and Compliance

Benefits and Responsibilities of Serving on the State Title I Committee of Practitioners

The Office of the State Superintendent of Education would like to thank you for your interest in the State Title I Committee of Practitioners. Service on the team will support effective, meaningful implementation of Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (ESEA) in the District of Columbia.

If you have additional questions, please contact Giana Hutton at Giana.Hutton@dc.gov.

Benefits
Chance to directly shape state policy and to improve education in the District of Columbia
Opportunity to serve in a state advisory role
Opportunity to share/gain expertise
Convene with others with a desire to impact Title I/general education policy
Expenses paid for professional development opportunities at least once annually by OSSE from Title I grant funds based on executive management approval
Dinner served at evening Committee of Practitioners meetings

Responsibilities
Attendance and participation at bi-monthly State Title I Committee of Practitioners meetings held at OSSE from 4:00 – 6:30 P.M. on the 3rd Thursday (unless otherwise indicated) of the following months: January, March, May, July, and September
Attendance at up to 3 additional meetings annually, when needed
Maintain 70% annual attendance rate at the Committee of Practitioners meetings
Complete tasks as assigned by the Committee
Review provided materials ahead of meeting dates, if given 1-week notice